

External Enclosures

As a leading supplier of external enclosures to the telecommunications market, Rainford's experience and track record covers the manufacture of outdoor cabinet solutions, including heat management systems, Electromagnetic shielding and Industrial Protection (IP) for applications including, mobile telephone systems (mast head amplifiers and base stations), ADSL/VDSL systems, FTTX and CATV systems.

Enclosures can be configured to meet your specification with thermal management, power management, cabling, integration & electrical test.

Standard features include:

- environmental protection
- security locking systems
- single or double skin construction
- 19" or ETSI mounting verticals and
- cable management options.

Mobile
ADSL
WI-FI
VDSL
FTTX
CATV

